Tonight 7 p.m. BRINGING DOWN THE HOUSE Steve Martin Queen Latifah

Peter is a divorced attorney who’s doing his best to move on with his life. He’s been chatting online, and when his new friend comes to his house, he discovers she’s not who he thinks she is. It’s Charlene, a prison escapee who wants Peter to help clear her name.

PG-13, language, sexual humor and drug material, 105 minutes

9:30 p.m. THE HOURS Nicole Kidman Julianne Moore

In 1951, Laura Brown, a pregnant housewife, is planning a party for her husband. But she can’t stop reading the novel “Mrs. Dalloway.” Clarissa Vaughn, a modern woman living in present times, is throwing a party for her friend Richard, a famous author dying of AIDS. These two stories are simultaneously linked to the work and life of Virginia Woolf, who’s writing the novel.

PG-13, mature thematic elements, some disturbing images and brief language, 114 minutes

Tomorrow 1 p.m. PIGLET’S BIG MOVIE Animated

The adventure begins in the Hundred-Acre-Wood as the gang gets ready for the Honey Harvest. Much to his chagrin, Piglet is left out of the festivities because he is declared too small to help. So, the unsung hero abandons his pals to wander the wood and think about his place, however small, in the world.

G, 70 minutes

7 p.m. THE CORE Aaron Eckart Hilary Swank

Geophysicist Dr. Josh Keyes discovers that an unknown force has caused the earth’s inner core to stop rotating. With the planet’s magnetic field rapidly deteriorating, our atmosphere literally starts to come apart at the seams with catastrophic consequences. Keyes, along with a team of the world’s most gifted scientists, travel into the earth’s core.

Their mission: Detonate a device that will reactivate the core.

PG-13, sci-fi life/death situations and brief strong language, 105 minutes

May 11 7 p.m. GANGS OF NEW YORK

Leonardo DiCaprio
Daniel Day-Lewis

The setting is in the mid-1800s, when the streets of lower Manhattan were teeming with tension and violence. Amsterdam Vallon witnessed the death of his father at the hands of William “The Butcher” Cutting, the maniacally driven ruler of the city’s most powerful gang. Sixteen years later, Amsterdam is finally released from the orphanage that raised him. Determined to avenge his father’s death, Amsterdam makes his way back to the volatile Five Points to track down Cutting and exact revenge.

R, intense strong violence, sexuality/nudity, and language, 167 minutes

May 12-15 closed

May 16 7 p.m. CHICAGO Renee Zellweger Catherine Zeta-Jones Richard Gere

Roxie Hart is a married chorus girl with hopes of being a headliner in Vaudeville. Velma Kelly is a former headliner. What do these two have in common? They both are murderesses. Roxie killed her lover when he walked out on her, and Velma killed her husband and sister, who were having an affair. Chicago’s newspapers love the nitty-gritty and Velma is at the top of the headlines. But then Roxie comes along and Velma is old news. They find themselves competing for not only the press’ attention, but also the focus of their shared lawyer, the suave Billy Flynn. Add to the mix a sob sister, Roxie’s hapless husband Amos, and a warm prison matron who watches out for her girls (if there’s something in it for her), and you have Chicago.

PG-13, sexual content and dialogue, violence and thematic elements, 113 minutes
